Re: Doe v. New York University, No. 19-cv-00744-ALC

Dear Judge Carter:

As you know, we represent defendant New York University (“NYU”) in the above-referenced action. We write, in accordance with Section 1.D of the Court’s Individual Practices, regarding next steps in the litigation.

We have been advised by counsel for plaintiff (“Doe”) that he intends to file an amended complaint in light of factual developments since Doe’s original complaint was filed.¹ In the circumstances, and to avoid the inefficiencies that would arise from NYU responding to a soon-to-be superseded pleading, NYU has consented to the filing of an amended complaint. At present, Doe expects to be in a position to file that amended complaint by the end of next week.

Accordingly, and with Doe’s consent, NYU respectfully requests that:

1. Its deadline to respond to Doe’s current complaint, currently set for April 1, 2019, see Dkt. 17, be adjourned sine die.
2. The deadline for NYU to move, answer, or otherwise respond to Doe’s amended complaint be set for 30 days after Doe’s amended complaint is filed.

Two previous requests for extensions of NYU’s deadline to respond to Doe’s complaint have been made, both of which the Court granted. See Dkt. 12, 17. We thank the Court for its attention to this matter, and are happy to answer any questions the Court may have.

¹ See Dkt. 11 (advising the Court of adjudicator’s decision finding that Mr. Doe was not responsible for any violations of the NYU policy at issue); Dkt. 16 (advising the Court that the adjudicator’s decision was affirmed on appeal).

Hon. Andrew L. Carter Jr.
